Warrior Cats Games (#1)

It's time for some fun and games - warriors style!

Our game? Alphabetical warrior cats naming!
Rules*:*
Each person takes it in turns to post a warrior name in alphabetical order. When we get to Z, the game starts again at A. The names do not have to be from the warrior books.

e.g. -
Person One: Astertail!
Person Two: Berryheart!
Person Three: Carrotmask!
etc.

Warrior Cats Games (#1)

It's time for some MORE fun and games - warriors style!

This next game is so much fun, its called the 'what if' game!

Rules:

Each person takes it in turn to post an event that happened in Erin Hunter's Warrior Cats books. It can be from anywhere in the story! However, instead of simply writing the event, they put a 'what if' at the front of it. The next person says whether they like the previous persons idea. Its a little confusing, but there's an example below!

e.g. -

Person One: What if... Spottedleaf lived and had kits with Firestar?

Person Two: That'd be awesome, their kits would be so cute! What if... Yellowfang hadn't died?

Person Three: That would be weird... Her death was too emotional! What if...

etc.

SEVEN

Big thanks to 'Hollystar!!!' on the official Erin Hunter Message boards for providing me with these awesome facts!

- Fireheart did not disagree with Graystripe's love for Silverstream because it was against the code, he disagreed with it because he felt like was being replaced.

- Stormfur's name was a tribute to Crookedstar, Silverstream's father, Stormkit being his name before he got his injury. The suffix 'fur' came in honour of Stonefur, Stormfur's mentor.

- Thistleclaw originally went to StarClan, but Bluestar chased him to the Dark Forest.

- Leopardstar died from diabetes.

- Lionheart was Thornclaw, Brackenfur and Cinderpelt's father.

- Leopardstar was born a 'drypaw' which is a term RiverClan used to refer to a cat who originally doesn't like getting their paws wet.

- Squirrelflight requested the -leaf suffix for Hollyleaf's warrior name because she was thinking of Leafpool.

- Vicky said that Cody told Princess about the Clans leaving the forest. Pricness was sad when she heard, but she understood why the clans had to leave.

- Hollyleaf is frightened of thunderstorms because of the confrontation with Ashfur.

- Tigerclaw was originally going to be named Hammerclaw, but one of the Erin's changed it at the last minute because cats would not know what a hammer is; Vicky thought the name Hammerclaw still suited him more than Tigerclaw.

- When Scourge killed Tigerstar, slicing his belly, Scourge struck nine major organs, each causing Tigerstar to lose a life.

- Leopardstar joined TigerClan because she was in love with Tigerstar.

- Bluestar didn't just like and trust Fireheart because of the prophecy, but because he reminded her of Oakheart. This is also why she gave him the suffix 'heart' for a warrior name.

- Graystripe and Darkstripe are related.

- Graystripe favoured Feathertail because she looked like her mother.

- Hawkfrost fell in love with Ivypool during training but he never let it show,

- Onestar was angry that he was not accepted by his clanmates, so in a dream he challenged Tallstar to a fight and Onestar won. Tallstar said it was proof that Onestar was the right choice for a leader.

- Spottedleaf was killed so Fireheart wouldn't have to choose between her and Sandstorm.

- Scourge hated the dog teeth in his collar but he put up with it to make him look more fearsome.

- Vicky confirmed that Frostfur, Loudbelly and Speckletail all died of starvation a few moons after the clans left.

- Vicky revealed that Cinderpelt has always been in love with Fireheart, but Fireheart has never known.

- Brokenstar has kittypet blood in him because his grandfather, Hal, was a kittypet.

- Mousewhisker and Minnowtail were a forbidden couple. This influenced their decision to be in the Dark Forest.

- Sasha found an elderly two-leg who looked after her.

- Briarlight loved Jayfeather.

- In "Fire and Ice", Cinderpaw and Brackenpaw are apprenticed before they are six moons old.

- Once a cat fades away from StarClan, they don't disappear forever, they're just reincarnated again.

- Foxleap and Ivypool will most likely be mates.

- Honeyfern was pregnant when she died.

- Every time Bluestar crossed the thunderpath she was reminded of Snowfur.
